Step 1

Do you have a Tax File Number (TFN) ?

A Tax File Number is a unique identifying number issued to you by the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) for your lifetime.

Although not compulsory a TFN can be used for a variety of reasons, for example;

- ✓ to lodge a tax return
- ✓ start or change jobs
- ✓ joining a superannuation fund

If you don't have a TFN then you may have more tax withheld than is necessary, or not be able to receive government benefits.

For more information on Tax File Numbers and how to apply for one, check out the Australian Taxation Office by one of the following methods;

Website <http://www.ato.gov.au/youth/>

Phone 1300 720 092

Or visit the ATO at, 235 Stanley St, Townsville

Are you registered with Centrelink ?

Centrelink is an Australian Government agency that offer a range of services to help you become self sufficient. You need to register your details with them, (complete an online application or visit the Customer Service Centre), to gain access to the services they offer.

Once you have registered with Centrelink, ask about their referral service to a Job Network member where you can access advice and assistance on getting a job as well as help with your resume.

Surfing the net, go to <http://www.centrelink.gov.au/> to view the services Centrelink provide, payment types and how you can register online.

OR you can call 13 10 21 to make an appointment at the Customer Service Centre located at;

Centrelink Shop 1
High Park Shopping Centre
72 Herbert Street
Ingham QLD 4850

Step 3

What about Medicare ?

Medicare ensures all Australians have access to free or low-cost medical, optometrical and hospital care by access to;

- free treatment as a public (Medicare) patient in a public hospital
- free or subsidised treatment by practitioners such as doctors, specialists, participating optometrists or dentists (specified services only)

Registration with Medicare is not compulsory, although to take advantage of services offered enrolment is required. Medicare enrolments and medical benefit payments are administered by Medicare Australia.

It is possible you are already registered / enrolled with Medicare and are currently on your parent/s card, (ask your parents). You can have your own card, talk to your parents about this first, then you need to complete a form titled 'Application to transfer or copy from one Medicare card to another'

Follow this link to access the Medicare Copy/Transfer Application Form

Have you enrolled to vote ?

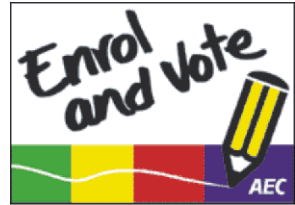

Australian citizens can enrol to be added to the electoral roll at 17 years of age.

Once you turn 18, you are then entitled to vote.

For your voice to be heard and opinions to be counted we encourage you to enrol and vote.

Enrolment at your permanent address and voting are compulsory for Australian citizens that are 18 years of age or older.

You will need to complete an enrolment form which will include you on the electoral roll for federal, state and local government elections. Forms are available from;

Australia Post outlets

Online www.aec.gov.au

Or visit the AEC office;

Employment Agencies

Employment agencies are likely to be linked with Australian Government programmes, such as Job Network.

Access to these providers may require job seekers to be registered with Centrelink.

They provide various support services towards self improvement as well as facilities for job seekers to search for job vacancies.

What is a Recruitment Agency ?

Recruitment agencies provide recruitment services, they find the right people to fill job vacancies whether they be part-time, full-time, casual, permanent or temporary positions. Recruitment agencies often specialise in certain industry groups, so job vacancies and types will vary between different agencies.

There are quite a number of Recruitment Agencies in the Townsville and Thuringowa areas. Check out the Yellow Pages Directory under;

Employment – Labour Hire Contractors & Employment Services.

You will need to register with the agencies you choose, they may want you to complete a skills aptitude test as well as fill in their forms with your details.

TIP!

- Register with more than one agency
- Ask questions, get advice
- Keep in contact with them

More ways to find work.....

Look in the classified section of the local newspaper

Check out websites advertising job vacancies such as;

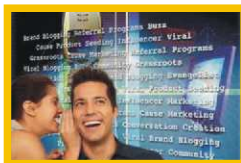

- www.seek.com.au
- www.careerone.com.au
- www.mycareer.com.au

Target businesses you would like to work for, send them a letter with your details, knock on the door and enquire if there are any vacancies .

Tell everyone your are looking for work, 'word of mouth' helps

Have you ever thought about Volunteer Work ?

How about giving Volunteer Work a go!

Doing some voluntary work is a great way of getting new skills, improving existing skills, networking with others or just a chance to experience a different life outside of school.

Volunteering can be very rewarding, use it as a way to set some career goals OR just become more involved in community groups and organisations.

Find opportunities and register as a volunteer at:

www.volunteersearch.gov.au
